

DEPARTMENT OF THE SHENANDOAH.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

Major Dwight, 2d Massachusetts, who was captured at Winchester, arrived here to-day, having been paroled until exchanged. He confirms the report brought by a private of the 5th Connecticut, that all the officers, the sick, wounded and disabled, the surgeon and hospital attendants, captured by Jackson, have been paroled till exchanged. A favorite with all the officers of this corps, his arrival in camp was the subject of general rejoicing.

Among those paroled are named Col. Kenly of the 1st Maryland; Major Collins of the Vermont Cavalry; Dr. Stone, 2d Massachusetts, and others who distinguished themselves on the battlefield or by their self-sacrifice in staying behind to attend to the sick and wounded who were captured. It is understood that Col. Murphy was not in Winchester, and it is supposed that the enemy carried him southward. Major Dwight and others concur in stating that all the prisoners and sick, so far as their observations went, were treated in the kindest manner. The reports to the contrary are pronounced by them to have been emanations of fugitives who were cowardly enough to leave their comrades, and circulated these reports to shield their own cowardice.

That many females and citizens behaved in the most dauntless manner toward our retreating soldiers is not denied; but it should be known to the public that those having such means of knowing, will willingly assure that all Union soldiers were as unfortunate as to fall into the hands of the enemy, have been treated in a humane manner.

That isolated cases of cruelty were perpetrated, is well known, but these were probably exceptions to the general course. The publication of such incidents creates a false impression on the minds of the army, and tends to produce, by acts of supposed retaliation, the very evils to be deprecated. The period of the army has been in quiet occupation of Martinsburg since Saturday. They report no enemy in front. On one occasion their scouts advanced within two miles of Winchester, tending to confirm rumors previously received, that the enemy have evacuated the town.

Major Dwight also heard the firing in the direction of Middletown. He says that at the battle of Winchester the killed and wounded troopers of our army were buried with the greatest decency and care, and their graves appropriately marked.

It is expected that, fresh provisions being very short with the Rebels, our prisoners were short of suitable nourishment. In other articles they were well supplied with every comfort and necessity. Col. Kenly and other prisoners are expected to-morrow.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

Arrival of the Transport Philadelphia—Col. Billy Wilson in Possession of the Rebel Secretary Mallory's House—Complete Destruction of the Navy-Yard—The Town Almost Deserted.

The United States steam transport Philadelphia, Capt. Henry Barton, from Pensacola May 25, and Key West May 30, in ballast, to Col. D. D. Tompkins, arrived on Thursday morning. The Philadelphia took from New-York on her outward trip 116 bullocks and 80 sheep, and all were landed in good condition by Commissary James Starr and assistants. She had fine weather all the passage home.

Our troops are still occupying Pensacola. Gen. Arnold has had the Mayor's Office fitted up for his headquarters. He occupies the house belonging to Major Chase, now in the Rebel army. Col. William Wilson has taken charge of the fine manorial and grounds owned by Stephen R. Mallory, now the Rebel Secretary of the Navy. The 6th Regiment Zouaves and the 7th New-York Volunteers, Col. Dodge, are encamped in the city, and are part in tents and the rest in vacant houses. The health of the men is good, and all are pleased with the change from Santa Rosa and sea.

Nearly all the large houses are closed, the owners having left, and many have left furniture and everything behind, so that our officers are enjoying as fine quarters as they could wish for. But few stores are open, and goods are scarce. There are but 300 people left in the city, but all are very poor and destitute. Brig-Gen. Arnold has been issuing ration tickets to many of them. Confederate scrip is plenty, but, of course, worthless, and the people have nothing else to offer. The city is under martial law; several companies of regulars are quartered in the houses, and one company have the cotton-house buildings. Wilson's Zouaves are throwing up fortifications on the hill which commands all approaches to the city. Deserters are constantly coming off. The Rebels have a large body of mounted men, probably 800 strong, armed with shot guns and long knives. Several have been captured by our pickets.

The Philadelphia arrived at Pensacola from New-York May 13, and was detained by the General (being the only steamer in port) until the 16th inst., and took up to Pensacola from Port Pickens stores, troops, ammunition, &c., and May 14 went over to the Navy-Yard and attempted to extinguish the burning coal, but could do no good. It is said there was over six thousand tons in the buildings; the glare can be seen a long distance at sea.

The destruction and wreck at the Navy-Yard is complete, and beyond description. The fine Naval Hospital is a mass of ruins; also, all the fine dwellings. The Philadelphia was ordered to Key West May 16, to bring down more troops, and reached Pensacola May 23, with the 91st Regiment New-York Volunteers, Col. J. H. Van Zandt, and landed them all safely. She then took on board two companies, "C" and "E," 3d United States Infantry, Capt. John M. Hildt commanding, which were ordered to join their regiment at Washington.

The steam transport, Gen. Meigs, Capt. Watson, is at Pensacola. June 5, 7, 8, 9, of the Highlands, fell in with schooner Franklin Pierce, Smith, with crew, in distress; lost her sails, and had 31 feet water in her; took off Captain and all but one man, and brought them up to the city for assistance.

The following passengers came by the Philadelphia: Major Z. B. Tower, Engineer U. S. Army; Capt. John M. Hildt, Capt. John F. Phillips, Key West; Capt. H. T. Eilene, James Starr, S. S. Brainerd, &c. We are indebted to Joseph D. Wickham, Purser of the steamer Philadelphia, for favors.

REBEL ACCOUNTS FROM VICKSBURG. OUR FLEET BEFORE THE CITY.

From The Vicksburg (Miss.) Citizen of Friday, May 23. DESTRUCTION OF PRESIDENT DAVIS'S PROPERTY. We learn that the vandals have come off their benches and battered down the stately destroyed the residence of Jeff. Davis, and also that of Joe. Davis. Their acts of destruction and vandalism in that neighborhood were complete, leaving nothing but a bleak and desolated tract behind them.

THE GUNBOATS. Since the last communication by flag of truce yesterday morning no change has been made in the fleet. They still maintain their old position out of reach of our guns. Several shots have been fired by the gunboats at our men on the shore between the lower batteries and Warrenton, but no one has been hurt by them. One heavy shell that did not explode lies in the Warrenton road, and is an object of much curiosity to all who pass that way.

CAPTURED. The Union fleet in front of Warrenton is committing all sorts of depredations upon the people along the shore. Two citizens of Warrenton, Mr. Walker and Mr. Gardner, have been captured and taken off to their boats.

SICKNESS IN THE GUNBOATS. We are informed that there is an immense amount of sickness among the Union troops on the transports. It appears that they have run short of medicine, and a party of them made a visit to a drug store in Warrenton and carried off all its contents. One boat is said to be filled entirely with the sick. It is the general impression that the enemy has landed the troops from the city at some point below the city. We do not exactly know how they got so. But few of them will ever get home again, tell the fate of their companions, if they venture upon the soil of old Warren.

OUR PROSPECTS. Whatever doubts we have had as to the merits of our defenses here, they are now rapidly disappearing, and we are assured by the most competent and experienced military judges that our works are of a character as to bid defiance to the enemy. Every day is adding to our strength.

GEN. DUNCAN IN VAIN. The gallant J. K. Duncan, who so heroically defended the forts below New-Orleans, has arrived in our city. No man could be more welcome at this time.

Our city. No man could be more welcome at this time.

SCOUTING PARTIES. Our scouting parties have thus far effected but very little in harassing the enemy. In a little skirmish on Monday they succeeded in wounding five Yankees, but we also had one of our best men seriously wounded. So far the Yankees have had things their own way, having taken one of our cavalry regiments, captured several citizens of Warrenton, killed Mr. Johnson, doctor and Jeff. Davis and Joe Davis's farms, and committed depredations of all kinds everywhere. Why is it that our scouts cannot cut off these vandal parties?

A CAUTION. Have our military authorities taken any means to put a guard on the river at this city? Is it safe for our steamers to keep plying between this and the mouth of the Yazoo? The enemy can easily, by means of yaws and small boats, send a force across the swamp opposite this city to capture an unarmed steamer. This could be effected with very little trouble, and the enemy has the means and the men to do it, and strategy and trickery are the means by which they have accomplished every success heretofore. Let it not be said that they outwitted us at Vicksburg.

BURNING OF THE DE SOTO DEPOT. The building, located immediately opposite Vicksburg, on the Louisiana shore, was set on fire last night and entirely consumed. No attention was paid to it, and the enemy has the means and the men to do it, and strategy and trickery are the means by which they have accomplished every success heretofore. Let it not be said that they outwitted us at Vicksburg.

MOVEMENTS ON THE JAMES RIVER. An Oakland correspondent of The Philadelphia Press (near Richmond) writes, May 30: "Yesterday morning Gen. Stoneman broke up his camp, and marched toward Richmond toward Petersburg. He had with him a force of 35,000 men. I am unable to tell the object of this movement."

As the gunboats left City Point on Sunday, for another tussle with Fort Darling, it is not unlikely that a portion of our land and naval forces are engaged in a combined flank movement.

THE BATTLE OF THE PINES.
